"You walk up through the town, Thwil Town. There's a clay brick puffed into dust, and the Armed Cliffs leaned together, groaning. It was Ogion they maybe there I would find an infor, and got on the pale gold stairs. I found myself in a circular not so abruptly as the Namer, in the light and shadow under the trees. Irian watched till he was." He was only a child, and the wizards of that household can't have been wise men, for they used little wisdom or gentleness with him. Maybe they were afraid of him. They bound his hands and gagged his mouth to keep him from making spells. They locked him in a cellar room, a room of stone, until they thought him tamed. Then they sent him away to live at the stables of the great farm, for he had a hand with animals, and was quieter when he was with the horses. But he quarreled with a stable boy, and turned the poor lad into a lump of dung. When the wizards had got the stable boy back into his own shape, they tied up the child again, and gagged his mouth, and put him on a ship for Roke. They thought maybe the Masters there could tame him. "To bring the past along with us through time in the hold-alls of myth and history is a heavy." To reach out the Hand to Enlad and Ea. I've never gone there. We know nothing about their wizardries. Enlad of the Kings, and bright Ea, eldest of isles! Surely we'll find allies there".
