"The King's House is there," he said..shivering, they waded out, dried themselves as well as they could, struggled barefoot and wretched."The one," Rose said. As suddenly as the ewe had walked off, she went into her house. Dragonfly followed her, but only to the door. Nobody entered a witch's house uninvited..the straw musty. He had said nothing about himself, but Dulse had asked around a bit. The father, a longshoreman, had died in the big earthquake, when Silence would have been seven or eight; the mother was a cook at a waterfront inn. At twelve the boy had got into some kind of trouble, probably messing about with magic, and his mother had managed to prentice him to Elassen, a respectable sorcerer in Valmouth. There the boy had picked up his true name, and some skill in carpentry and farmwork, if not much else; and Elassen had had the generosity, after three years, to pay his passage to Roke. He looked again at Gift, and Ged did also. She looked at them both..carefully and looked around at the others. "But I don't know if he can keep a lid on the ant-.Medra bowed his head, standing there. He pressed against her flank and clung to her, for the stream had chilled him to the bone, and he was shivering..
